Xceed Financial Named a ‘Best Credit Union to Work For’ Once Again

The credit union has been acknowledged by the leading industry magazine four years in a row

El Segundo, Calif. (November 2017) – Credit Union Journal and Best Companies Group have named Xceed Financial Credit Union one of the “Best Credit Unions to Work For” for the fourth consecutive year. This designation is awarded to a select group of credit unions across the nation that excel at creating quality workplaces for employees.

“At Xceed, everything we do is about putting people first, and that starts in the workplace,” said Teresa Freeborn, President and Chief Executive Officer for Xceed Financial. “Our associates have made it possible for us to grow into the credit union we are today, and it’s important to us to let them know we recognize and value all they do. I truly appreciate our team for making this such an enjoyable place to work, and it’s an honor to be recognized in this way for four consecutive years.”

The Best Credit Unions to Work For selection process has two steps. First, judges evaluate each participating credit union’s workplace policies, practices and demographics. Second, the credit union’s employees complete surveys to assess their experiences and attitudes about their workplace. Anonymous employee feedback counts for approximately 75 percent of the total evaluation.

Credit unions must have at least 25 employees working in the U.S. to be eligible for this distinction. Additionally, honorees are grouped according to asset size: over $1 billion, $500 million to $1 billion, $200 million to $500 million, and under $200 million. The full Best Credit Unions to Work For list for 2017 was featured in the September 18, 2017 issue of Credit Union Journal and online at CUJournal.com.
