Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Xceed Financial Federal Credit Union ("Xceed Financial")

What we do

How does Xceed Financial protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also restrict access to those employees who need to know your information and require companies that work for us to protect such information.

How does Xceed Financial collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account or make deposits or withdrawals from your account.
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan.
- Use your credit or debit card.

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness.
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you.
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you.

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
